Section 2. If a member's cumulative grade point average falls below the standard in effect when he/she was selected (3.8), he /she will be given a written warning and a reasonable time period for improvement. If the cumulative grade point average remains below standard at the end of the warning period the student will be subject to further disciplinary action by the Faculty Council that includes consideration of dismissal from the chapter.

Section 3. Violations of the law or school regulations can result in immediate consideration of the dismissal of a member (see Section 5 below). These violations include, but are not limited to DWI, stealing, destruction of property, cheating, truancy, or possession, selling, or being under the influence of drugs or alcohol at school or school-related activities or in the community.

Section 4. Offenders of the school conduct code (such as use of profanity, failure to comply, unexcused absences, excessive tardiness, etc.) will receive written warning notification. A conference may be requested by either party (Faculty Council or student/parent). If the member is involved in another violation of the school conduct code, the member may be considered for dismissal. Additionally, students receiving any number of days of Out of School Suspension (OSS) will be removed as a member of the WMS Chapter of the NJHS pending the Faculty Council vote during a dismissal hearing. Other disciplinary actions will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

The member has the opportunity to present his/her defense either in person or via a written statement presented in lieu of the face-to-face hearing. Following the hearing, the Faculty Council will then vote on whether to dismiss. A majority vote of the Faculty Council is needed to dismiss any member.
- c. The results of the Faculty Council vote will be presented to the principal for review, and then stated in a letter sent to the student and parents. Dismissed members must surrender any membership emblems to the adviser.

Changing the Bylaws

Once the bylaws have been accepted by a vote of the chapter and approved by the Faculty Council and the administration, they become the 'law' or guiding principles of the organization. If this principle is adhered to, it will be necessary to change the bylaws only occasionally, due in large part to their specificity and detail.

Occasionally, the bylaws may have to be revised or completely rewritten. The revision is usually drafted by a specially-appointed Bylaws Revision Committee.

After a change has been proposed and a draft has been prepared, the members of the chapter should be informed and given copies so that they can review and discuss the issues before they come to a final vote. Proposed amendments or revisions most commonly require a two-thirds vote of the chapter for adoption. NOTE: Sections dealing with revisions to the procedures for selection, disciplining, and dismissal of members can be changed only by the Faculty Council, though input from the chapter is allowed and encouraged.

Some chapters are criticized for spending too much time amending their bylaws instead of dealing with other chapter concerns. However, there are times when an outdated set of bylaws is a real hindrance to the chapter. Some good reasons for amending bylaws are:

- statements no longer suit the chapter or school situation
- bylaws are arranged so poorly that essential information is hard to find (this situation sometimes occurs when an old document has been added to and amended over a period of years).
- bylaws contain elements that have caused long-standing disagreement
- bylaws violate individual rights or local/state policies
- bylaws prevent the chapter from adapting to change.

It is important that each time the bylaws are reviewed or changed, that the date of approval be updated and included on the new document. Old, now outdated copies should be destroyed except for those kept on file for historical purposes.

Copies of chapter bylaws, in addition to being available for use by chapter members, should be readily available for use by the principal. Some schools systems require that these organizational guidelines be approved by the local school board or be on file with central office. This is another reason for careful review and preparation of the text as a representative document of the chapter.
